10 Champagne Delamotte Rosé, Le Mesnil-sur-Oger 70% Pinot Noir, 30% Chardonnay One of the rare rosé Champagnes to be made by the traditional, high quality saignée method, partly responsible for its pale salmon colour. Subtle and elegant, with red fruit characters and hints of spice. Based on Pinot Noir, the 30% Chardonnay in the blend gives the distinctive minerality and elegance synonymous with Delamotte. The ideal aperitif, Delamotte Rosé is also a surprisingly good match for oriental dishes or richer game birds, which reflect and enhance its bright, red fruit flavours	NV		6	3,300 / 550 Btl

Smooth-textured, creamy and refreshing, this is a finely structured champagne with great persistence and finesse.	2007		6	3,690 / 615 Btl

BURGUNDY

23	Bourgogne Aligoté, Domaine François Carillon 100% Aligoté Pale straw in colour, lustrous and inviting, this presents a cocktail of crisp orchard fruit and crushed shell minerals on the nose, further elevated by citrus notes. The palate is similarly vibrant, appetising and fresh with laudable tension giving an edge to certain old vine richness. This is a far cry from Aligoté of old, offering excellent value and is an attractive change from Chardonnay.	2011 / 2012		12	1,650 / 138 Btl
24	Chablis, Domaine Vincent Dampit 100% Chardonnay The Dampit family is famous for its winemaking expertise and and young talent Vincent is the new kid on the block. We were struck by the classic elegance and approachable style of his Chablis, counterbalancing flinty minerality and soft, creamy fruit.	2014 / 2015		12	1,800 / 150 Btl
25	Bourgogne Blanc Les Sétilles, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Les Sétilles is the fruit of selected vines from Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet, some fermented in oak barrels, others in stainless steel tanks. The different components are then blended subtly to give the perfect balance of freshness and weight, creaminess and minerality.	2012		12	2,100 / 175 Btl
26	Bourgogne Chardonnay, Domaine François Carillon 100% Chardonnay François' Chardonnay is made from vines of up to 50 years old, from three different sites – two parcels close to Puligny, and one graduating towards Meursault. This is beautiful on the nose with a focused, intense display of white flowers and briny minerals, which almost obscures shades of warm shortcake. The palate, in turn, reveals an appealing balance of tender ripe fruit, hints of vanilla and biscuit with persistent focus and direction – this is tremendous value.	2011 / 2012 / 2013		12	2,250 / 187.50 Btl
27	Montagny Bonneveaux 1^{er} Cru, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Such an appealing wine this year, Bonneveaux exudes white flower perfume and fresh orchard fruit. Concentrated and rich in flavour, as always with this premier cru, the wine nevertheless retains an attractive freshness.	2012 / 2013		12	2,250 / 187.50 Btl
28	Chablis 1er Cru Les Lys, Domaine Vincent Dampit 100% Chardonnay Pale lemon in colour. The nose shows soft jasmine notes, delicate apple and pear, with a hint of ginger. The palate is elegant with a classic, flinty minerality, balanced by soft, creamy fruit.	2012 / 2014		12	2,400 / 200 Btl
29	Bourgogne Chardonnay Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Pierre Labet 100% Chardonnay Very pale green-gold in colour, it offers an attractive blend of orchard fruit and lemon shortcake on both the nose and palate, complemented by clear mineral definition. Hints of sherbet add refreshment as does a bright, nervy acidity. In the context of the vintage, there is perhaps surprising generosity on a well-rounded, rather luscious palate - really impressive.	2012 / 2013		12	2,760 / 230 Btl

30 Macon-Verzé, Domaines Leflaive 100% Chardonnay In 2014 the “least expensive fine wine in the world” has produced a citrusy scented, subtly creamy wine, with a lithe, flavoury sweet taste, a subdued (at this stage) richness and a ripe, supple but beautifully clean and fresh finish. There is something really special about having this legendary label available at a price that will attract the younger, more adventurous buyer. Quite rightly this has become a cult wine.	2014		12	2,800 / 233.33 Btl
31 Beaune Blanc Clos du Dessus des Marconnets Blanc, Domaine Pierre Labet 100% Chardonnay	2012		12	4,140 / 345 Btl
32 Meursault, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Meursault from Leflaive is packed with minerality, acidity, and finesse. Aromas of toasty oak and citrus set the tone with this vintage which is followed with flavours of apple and tropical stoned fruits on the palate.	2009		12	4,300 / 359 Btl
33 Chassagne-Montrachet, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Subtly scented with creamy stone-fruit and a refreshing, citrus quality, this benchmark Chassagne-Montrachet is generously textured and has notes of white chocolate and almonds on the palate. The bright acidity gives the wine freshness and light appeal.	2009		12	4,500 / 375 Btl
34 Meursault Tillets, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay	2011		12	4,740 / 395 Btl
35 Puligny-Montrachet, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Very floral on the nose with a hint of exotic fruit and white flowers. Good acidity and a smooth, impressively long finish. A text book Olivier Leflaive style Chardonnay from the Côte de Beaune. Great choice for something a bit special.	2009 / 2012		12	4,900 / 408.33 Btl
36 Savigny-Les-Beaune Vergelesses Blanc 1er Cru, Domaine Pierre Labet 100% Chardonnay	2012		12	5,400 / 450 Btl

38 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay As always, a flamboyant nose of creamy, generous, buttery fruit with a palate that is rich, but with a beautiful focus, a crisp tight structure and elegant length.	2010		6	5,700 / 950 Btl
39 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Fresh and almost delicate nose; lemon, lime aromas with subtle oak and brioche. Powerful flavour intensity on the palate with racy acidity and a long stony, mineral finish. Precise, somewhat approachable now but will evolve very well over time.	2009 / 2011		6	6,000 / 1,000 Btl

40 Chablis Vaudésir Grand Cru, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay An excellent translation of Grand Cru Vaudésir – very true to type. A pretty but powerful nose of mayblossom and marzipan. The palate has a lot to express; ripe pears, baked quince and nutmeg with layers of caramel cream - all balanced by Chablis' typical mineral tang.		2007 / 2010 / 2011		12	6,200 / 516.67 Btl
41 Chassagne-Montrachet Clos Saint-Jean 1er Cru, Domaine François Carillon 100% Chardonnay Very pale in colour, little forthcoming, this was also rather reticent on the nose when we tasted, so that we chanced upon the palate totally ill-prepared for its incredibly gregarious attack. Waves of citrus, stone fruit and minerals are immediately attractive – vivacious yet steely. No soft touch, this is precise, focused and disciplined with a high-toned finish – great wine!		2010		12	6,490 / 541 Btl
42 Chassagne-Montrachet Clos Saint-Jean 1^{er} Cru, Domaine François Carillon 100% Chardonnay Very pale white gold in colour; this has a subtle, complex nose, with a melange of citrus, orchard and stone fruit and a distinctive briny backdrop. The palate provides a measured, controlled array of fruit, reflecting the aromatics of the nose, which are vibrant, with a steely core.		2012		12	6,492 / 541 Btl
43 Meursault 1er Cru Blagny, Domaine Joseph Matrot 100% Chardonnay Alluring, bright straw-gold in colour. The nose combines orchard fruit with pastry notes and hints of vanilla. There is a lovely balance of richness, innate power and expressive aromatics, refreshed by crushed-shell minerals and a fine citrus acidity. A wonderful expression of the vintage.		2008		12	6,500 / 542 Btl
44 Chassagne-Montrachet, Abbaye de Morgeot 1er Cru, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Creamy and buttery notes combine with citrus-lemon flavours and toasted notes. The underlying minerality is typical of this appellation.		2011		12	6,600 / 550 Btl
45 Meursault Sous le Dos d'Ane 1er Cru, Domaine Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay This is a broader, more charming illustration of the Domaine's style with nougat like, warm cake perfume on the nose and an easy, supple seductive palate but that characteristic tension and refinement to the finish. Super achievement.		2010		12	7,200 / 600 Btl
46 Puligny-Montrachet Les Champs Gains 1er Cru Domaine François Carillon 100% Chardonnay Yellow gold with green lights, this presents a well-rounded, honeyed nose with white flowers and fruit cocktail. From vines high on the slope on poor soils where generally it is difficult to ripen, this is actually rather luscious, though retaining an innate elegance through to a protracted, poised finish.		2011		12	7,500 / 625 Btl

48 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Pucelles, Olivier Leflaive 100% Chardonnay Light lemon gold in colour, this wine displays generous citrus orchard. Medium bodied with flavours of fresh lime and lemon peels, very intense, rich and deep with minerals and lovely balance of fruit. The Pucelles has a tight structure with a crisp, mineral finish. 71	Campo Alla Casa, Bolgheri Bianco, Enrico Santini, Tuscany 65%Vermentino, 35% Sauvignon Blanc This has a perfectly lovely nose, dominated initially by zesty sauvignon notes before giving way to more complex aromatics - a blend of citrus, orchard and stone fruit – all defined by a persistent mineral layer. Really attractive texture and focus.	2010 / 2011		12	1,880 / 156.67 Btl
72	Guardiola Bianco IGT, Tenuta di Passopisciaro, Sicily 100% Chardonnay Fermented in stainless steel and brought on in neutral oak and concrete, this is a very pure translation of Chardonnay. This is a gem of a wine with amazing texture - a pale golden straw in colour. The nose presents a harmonious blend of orchard and stone fruits, with a rapier of citrus; all complemented by a more languid opulence. The palate reflects the aromatics presented on the nose and delivers the promised richness, but there is a very attractive linear mineral streak which adds focus.	2010 / 2013		6	1,600 / 267.67 Btl
SPAIN
73	Veigadares Albarino, Adegas Galegas, D.O. Rias Baixas 85% Albariño, 10% Treixadura, 5% Loureiro Spicy peach notes and floral aromas make this wine distinctive. 74	Predicador White, Benjamin Romeo, Rioja 78% Viura, 11% Garnacha Blanca, 11% Malvasia A pale gold in colour, this was a little shy on the nose initially when we tasted. Gradually it revealed floral notes and fresh orchard fruit, enriched by vanilla cream and lifted by citrus notes – lime zest and lemongrass. The palate echoed the aromatics suggested by the nose, adding herbal nuances and hints of the exotic – stone fruit and physalis.	2009		12	2,700 / 225 Btl
75	Macizo, Benjamin Romeo, Cataluña 50% Xarello, 24% Granacha Blanca (Vieja), 17% Garnacha Blanca (Joven), 9% Malvasía Pale yellow gold in colour, this is enticing from the outset. Rich, creamy stone fruit complements fresh orchard fruit, layered and richly textured, punctuated by minerals and hints of nuts. A richness of old vines is evident throughout. Long and full, the finish is perfumed with sandalwood and shades of spice and wild herbs.	2009		12	2,700 / 225 Btl

76 Que Bonito Cacareba, Benjamin Romeo, Rioja

45% Garnacha Blanc, 35% Viura, 20% Malvasía Riojana

The nose is seductive, the colour a burnished gold. The aromatics lie very much at the tropical and stone fruit end of the flavour spectrum, peach, apricot, lychee and star fruit to the fore, the richness of the oak adding a creamy character – melba-esque. Opulent and rather decadent it is by no means heavy with good citrus refreshment lending itself well to rather awkward ingredients - a lovely wine.

77 Guru Wine & Soul , Douro

Port Variety Blend (Gouveio, Viosinho, Rabigato and Codéga do Larinho)

Shimmering gold in colour, it has immediate appeal. The nose is at once appetising and inviting, combining warm pastry richness, hints of the exotic and a crisp citrus refreshment, all underscored by stony minerals. The palate is rather luscious and generous but there is a discipline and focus which delivers classicism over hedonism – a beautifully balanced, sensual wine, graceful and long on the finish – highly recommended

136 Gigondas Vieilles Vignes, Tardieu-Laurent 80% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 5% Mourvèdre Deeply coloured, the nose makes its overtures with a plethora of sherbet-refreshed red and black fruit. Bright and effusive, violet-scented, there are also darker spiced notes, liquorice and tobacco, all echoed on the palate, which is ripe, rounded, sweet and savoury, supported by beautifully-integrated fine tannins. This Gigondas is matured in one year old Allier and Tronçais oak which adds richness to the mid-palate and a little spice. Powerful and muscular, this warrants a little patience – a very impressive translation of both the vintage and the appellation, with stunning purity.	2011 / 2013		12	3,600 / 300 Btl
137 Saint-Joseph Vieilles Vignes Tardieu-Laurent 100% Syrah Opaque plum in colour. Michel does not rack his wines (transfer from barrel to barrel, leaving sediment behind with resulting oxygenation), the better to retain the wines' individuality. Sweet, berried, red and black fruit allied to savoury, meaty notes stake their claim on both the nose and palate. Dark chocolate and cherry liqueur on the finish, give some indication of the old vine fruit influences which will extend through a mid-term future – really rather fine	2011 / 2013		12	3,800 / 316.67 Btl
