11 Bourgogne Chardonnay Domaine Marquis d'Angerville	2011 / 2012		6	360 60/bottle
12 Bourgogne Blanc, Domaine Leflaive 100% Chardonnay The 2010 is beautiful, with a full yellow green colour and a fatly perfumed, buttery nose. The contrast to the palate is startling. Spicy, elegant with terrific attack, this reconciles a nougat richness with super balance and real length.	2012		6	462 77/bottle
13 Chablis Domaine Vincent Dampt 100% Chardonnay Pale lemon in colour. The nose shows soft jasmine notes and delicate apple and pear, with a hint of ginger. The palate is elegant with a classic, flinty minerality, balanced by soft, creamy fruit.	2014		12	528 44/bottle
14 Bourgogne Chardonnay, Domaine François Carillon 100% Chardonnay François' Chardonnay is made from vines of up to 50 years old, from three different sites – two parcels close to Puligny, and one graduating towards Meursault. This is beautiful on the nose with a focused, intense display of white flowers and briny minerals, which almost obscures shades of warm shortcake. The palate, in turn, reveals an appealing balance of tender ripe fruit, hints of vanilla and biscuit with persistent focus and direction – this is tremendous value.	2011 / 2013		12	576 48/bottle
15 Bourgogne Aligoté, Domaine François Carillon 100% Aligoté A vibrant and zesty Aligoté - this is produced from impressively old vines at between 50 and 60 years old, but of very low yields. Orchard fruit dominates the nose, allied to briny minerals and zesty citrus notes. The palate is bright and fresh - an uplifting blend of apple, pear and stone fruit and a juicy, grapey finish - very attractive and excellent value.	2010 / 2011		12	588 49/bottle
16 Chablis Domaine Vincent Dampt Halves 100% Chardonnay Pale lemon in colour. The nose shows soft jasmine notes and delicate apple and pear, with a hint of ginger. The palate is elegant with a classic, flinty minerality, balanced by soft, creamy fruit.	2012		24	624 26/half

Quintessential Meursault, this has a fat, golden colour and a peachy, biscuity rich perfume on the nose. Subtle and beautifully weighted on the palate, this is a seductively styled Premier Cru, hedonistic and full but with a minerality that bears the fruit lightly and insinuatingly well. Lovely wine.	2008		12	1,800 150/bottle

50	Château Mayne-Graves, Bordeaux Supérieur 80% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Petit Verdot An intense, dark plum-ruby, this presents subtle spice on the nose, allied to red and black fruits. A good food wine.	2013		12	456 38/bottle
52	Chateau L'Avocat Cab Sauv/Merlot Red Graves, a favoured appellation in the UK is classically translated here with full fruit allied to mineral backbone. Deep coloured, leafy black fruit smell. 53	Roc de Cambes, Côtes de Bourg 70% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Malbec Jet-plum velvet in appearance, intense and immediately inviting. 54	Domaine de l'Aurage, Côtes de Castillon 80% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc Very much in the Mitjavile mould, Louis will not be making a second wine and all the vin de presse will be included in this wine. It is a very dense, dark crimson in colour, very attractive, with good intensity. The nose is intriguing and inviting; sweet, ripe, rich and peppered, with hints of fennel. The palate echoes these aromatics, all set within a gorgeous, rounded texture with sweet, summer pudding notes and warm cherry compote. Beautifully-textured, this is opulent, sensual and silky.	2008		12	984 82/bottle
55	L'Hospitalet de Gazin, Pomerol 90% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Cabernet Franc A full ruby colour, the nose offers sweet, butter scotched, toffee red fruit and the palate is beautifully extracted with deep, ripe tannins, full, gently rich, generous flavours and a lively, long, elegant finish. 58	Château Rauzan Gassies, 2ème Grand Cru Classé, Margaux Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc This property is producing better and better wines, although consumers should not expect any home runs yet. The deep ruby/plum-hued, soft, round 2003 displays the vintage's opulence along with sweet, savory, black cherry and cassis fruit, and hints of smoke, scorched earth, and burning embers. In spite of its fleshy character, it is a monolithic effort that will require consumption over the next 12-15 years.	2010		12	1,056 88/bottle
59	Tertre Roteboeuf Grand Cru, St-Emilion 85% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Franc Lustrous jet-ruby in colour, this has an extraordinarily lovely nose – very expressive. A plethora of violets, red and black berry fruit and cherries throws down the gauntlet with the palate rising to the challenge. Warm fruitcake launches the attack but fresh, vivacious primary aromas bring up the rear, layered with mocha. Sumptuous and appetising, this is silk-textured and full-bodied with an attractive lift on the finish.	2011 / 2012		6	2,310 385/bottle

63	Cote de Nuits-Villages Domaine Gilles Jourdan 100% Pinot Noir This is a deep, jet-plum in colour. The nose is darker, more complex and serious, with black brooding fruit, some fresh, red berry refreshment, cassis opulence and a sweet sherbet/berried coulis lift, all pepperspiced. The palate offers similar aromatics, really pretty fruit and a luxuriant consistency, which disguises a firm backbone. It is a very pure, very precise Pinot, beautifully balanced, through to an elegant, floral finish. This, of all Gilles wines, has a tendency to be overlooked, which is a great pity.	2011 / 2012		12	600 50/bottle
64	Bourgogne Pinot Noir Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Pierre Labet 100% Pinot Noir Deeply coloured, it offers a tremendously aromatic nose and palate- very pure fragranced Pinot with shades of crèmes de cassis, mûre and framboise – stylish and flamboyant. 72	Volnay Taillepieds 1er Cru Domaine Marquis d'Angerville 100% Pinot Noir The nose in 2011 combines a herbal dimension with crushed stone minerals, rather restrained and buttoned up at this early stage yet with a little time, it reveals more rounded notes, with hints of mocha, toast and vanilla cream. This has great potential even if it's hiding its light under a bushel at this juncture	2011		6	1,176 196/bottle

74	Volnay Clos des Ducs 1er Cru Domaine Marquis d'Angerville 100% Pinot Noir A beautiful colour, a rather flamboyant ruby-scarlet, incredible complexity of red and black fruit, it is concentrated and intense, and supported by sturdy, ripe tannins. This is a serious, opulent wine and yet it dances - pepper-spiced and punctuated by stony minerals. It has a very distinctive personality demonstrated throughout, lingering long into a protracted, layered finish. A vinous millefeuille with layer after layer of nuanced complementary aromatics refusing to be pigeon-holed, this is really impressive for the vintage.	2011		6	1,188 198/bottle

There is a lovely purity and a layered complexity which is often obscured in real lockbuster vintages. This 2011 shows restraint and character, an air of nobility reminiscent of Burgundian or Piemontese understated elegance. This is an opaque jet-shot garnet in colour. Initially this presents a savoury, meaty nose with notes of leather, exotic spices and fine minerality. Autumnal fruit compote emerges seductively, macerated dates and prunes to the fore. This is echoed on the palate, where warm fruitcake is lifted by fennel notes and liquorice. Opaque, inky plum-ruby in colour, firm to a very fine, bright rim, it immediately asserts a sense of power. Profound, layered complexity is evident even at this embryonic phase and will develop dramatically given some time in bottle. The nose, unusually, is very enticing, with dark, ripe cherries to the fore, plum compote and macerated forest fruits, allied to more savoury, gamey character and toasted oak. The palate, initially monolithic, gradually reveals elements of detailed complexity and sophistication. The nose presents black fruit, crème de cassis and compote of cherry, with mocha notes, hints of tobacco and vanilla. The palate is more buttoned up and adroit than the 2009 at this stage, showing a more classical structure and definite capacity for ageing, yet opulence prevails overall. This is a powerful, muscular wine the structure of which is camouflaged by luscious fruit – phenomenal.	2010		12	3,060 255/bottle
109	Toscana Sangiovese IGT, Case Basse di Gianfranco Soldera 100% Sangiovese A deep, limpid ruby, this is an extraordinary wine.
